Our dedicated crew members delight in providing gracious, genuine, warmly attentive service. Experience the grandeur of cruising with the personal care and connection that make anyplace feel like home.

FLEXIBLE ITINERARIES

Our 2025 itineraries include everything from 7-day getaways to a 25-day exploration. We're introducing more roundtrip sailings than ever before, including two 11-day cruises to Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and more!

CURATED SHORE EXCURSIONS

Experience classic character and quintessential charm. Trace the footsteps of American history in Boston, go sightseeing in Nova Scotia, visit a national park in Newfoundland or stroll through colonial Newport.

PERFECTLY SIZED SHIPS

Returning in 2025 is "R" Class ship Volendam, whose diminutive size allows it to sail the St. Lawrence River from Québec City to Montréal under a series of bridges that prevent larger passenger vessels from making the trip upriver.

HISTORY, NATURE & LIGHTHOUSES

Discover craggy coastlines and picturesque ports. Walk through historic battle sites, visit America's oldest cities, and enjoy the area's stunning scenery, quaint lighthouses, and storybook Main Streets.

FRESH LOCAL FAVORITES

Enjoy authentic regional ingredients sourced directly from the port to your plate. Savor seasonal specialties including just-picked New England berries, fresh-caught Maine lobster, wild Prince Edward Island mussels and more.

HISTORIC SITES & COASTAL DELIGHTS

Learn why Charlottetown is known as the "Birthplace of Confederation" during a self-guided scavenger hunt, pull in a lobster trap from the waters of Passamaquoddy Bay under the watchful eye of a lobsterman, uncover the secrets of maple tapping at a New Brunswick maple sugar farm and so much more.

FEATURED PORTS

Past meets present in Canada & New England's major cities. Admire natural and man-made marvels, taking in fall foliage and gorgeous architecture alike on our September/October sailings. Stroll historic cobblestone streets, 17th-century ramparts, or old-stone alleys en route to Boston's Bull & Finch Pub (the inspiration for the TV show Cheers), Québec City's trendy Grande Allée thoroughfare, or Montréal's dynamic downtown core.

CALL ON QUÉBEC CITY

Did you know that the stone walls surrounding Québec City's UNESCO-listed Old Town are the only remaining fortified city walls in the U.S. and Canada? These echoes of the past now stand as a testament to Québec City's proud history and French heritage, on full display in its cuisine, culture, and language. Experience a unique taste of Europe in the heart of North America.

MARVEL AT MONTRÉAL

Did you know that Montréal boasts North America's second-highest number of restaurants per capita (after New York City)? But this unique urban mosaic is no second fiddle – Montréal's vibrant multicultural mélange can be felt in every bustling market, lively festival and cobblestone side street.

BASK IN BOSTON

Did you know that Boston is home to the United States' first public park, public school, public library, post office and lighthouse? This is perhaps not surprising, considering the city's historical significance. From the Boston Massacre and Paul Revere's midnight ride to the Boston Tea Party and the Battle of Bunker Hill, feel the American Revolution come alive in the "Cradle of Liberty."

FEATURED PORTS

Explore further afield in two very different destinations. Immerse yourself in the United States' colonial history in Yorktown (Williamsburg), where lovingly restored and preserved structures, sites, and stories document the tales and triumphs of the American Revolution. In Cap-aux-Meules, soak in Les Îles-de-la-Madeleine's enduring heritage and quintessential charm.

Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia

Cap-aux-Meules, Les Îles-de-la-Madeleine, Québec

YIELD TO THE PAST IN YORKTOWN (WILLIAMSBURG)

Did you know that the 1781 "Siege of Yorktown" is widely considered the decisive battle that led to the American Continental Army's victory over the British? Admire Yorktown's lovingly preserved colonial homes and historic battlefields or transport yourself back to the 18th century in Colonial Williamsburg – the U.S.'s largest outdoor educational living museum that keeps alive the story of American independence.

COME ALIVE IN CAP-AUX-MEULES

Did you know that tiny Cap-aux-Meules is home to North America's second-largest wooden church? The wood used to build St. Pierre de La Vernière was retrieved from one of the area's many 19th-century shipwrecks and had to be blessed before being used. Hear more fascinating tales as you shop for handmade local wares, explore secluded beaches, and witness the ebb and flow of life in this far-flung corner of Québec.
