CAVIAR TASTING

LA VERANDA
SEVEN SEAS SPLENDOR®

A TASTE OF TRAVEL

EXQUISITE CUISINE

Few things connect us to a particular time and place like cuisine. New flavours and intoxicating aromas from far-off lands can instantly transport us to a wonderful memory. They can enliven our spirits with passion as we experience new things and expand our palates. It's why we take pride in creating dining experiences that are so exquisite: nothing can elevate travel like cuisine.

Take in the bouquet and savour the notes of an expertly paired glass of wine provided by the head sommelier and bite into a perfectly aged and prepared filet mignon at Prime 7. Every appetiser at Compass Rose — like the delicate and rich lobster bisque — offers a delightful array of tastes and textures, while the scent of freshly baked bread and pastries makes for a refreshing greeting at breakfast each morning.

Allow the sublime and traditional flavourings of the Sole Grenobloise to transport you to France from Chartreuse. Italy is always at hand via the authentic dishes of Sette Mari at La Veranda, like the subtly enhanced flavours of the Pollo alla Cacciatora. Deliver an exotic touch to your evening with an array of dim sum at Pacific Rim on Seven Seas Grandeur™, Seven Seas Splendor® and Seven Seas Explorer®.

The Pool Grill is the perfect spot to relax with friends after a full day of onshore adventures. Or, for a more private evening, enjoy the quiet and comfort of your own suite with a meal prepared to your liking through our 24-hour, in-suite dining service.

Whatever your diet and whatever your mood, our masterful culinary teams deliver unforgettable dining experiences with a wide array of delicious choices, including plant-based and gluten-free offerings. Dining is always whenever, wherever and with whomever you choose. And there is never a charge for the exceptional wines, impeccable service and Unrivalled Cuisine™.

AFRICA & ARABIA

NOVEMBER 2024

MAY 2025

SULTAN QABOOS GRAND MOSQUE
MUSCAT, OMAN

COASTAL JEWELS & THE CRADLE OF CIVILISATION

The ancient monuments and mysteries of Egypt. Africa's cherished wildlife. The remarkable denizens of vast, wind-sculpted deserts. Like seeds planted in fertile soil, the legends of Africa and Arabia take root in our imaginations from childhood, fuelling our desire to experience the world around us. We are connected by this awe of human mystery and survival, and by the thrill of the natural world's power and grace.

Set sail aboard the resplendent Seven Seas Splendor[®] in November 2024 when she cruises from Lisbon to Cape Town, pausing in the bucolic Canary Islands before calling on coastal highlights of West Africa in Senegal, Gambia, Ivory Coast, Ghana and Namibia. She then embarks from Cape Town for a journey that includes overnights in Walvis Bay, Durban and Richards Bay, providing opportunities for you to discover the majestic Namib Desert landscape, go on a once-in-a-lifetime safari to Hluhluwe-Imfolozi Game Reserve and gain an appreciation for the traditional lifestyle of the Zulu people.

Seven Seas Voyager[®] ventures to the cradle of civilisation in May 2025. Beginning in sparkling Dubai, you'll gain first-hand knowledge of the modern Middle East in Oman and Saudi Arabia before overnights in Luxor, where you may cross the Nile and roam among the magnificent royal tombs of the pharaohs in the Valley of the Kings and treasures of Luxor Temple. In Jordan, the port of Aqaba provides access to Petra, where you may pass through a half-mile-long chasm and come face-to-face with the magnificent Treasury, Petra's ancient masterpiece.

ALASKA

SPIRE COVE
SEWARD, ALASKA

EXPECT THE MAJESTIC IN THE WILDLANDS

Immense. Untamed. Majestic. Epic - all these words describe Alaska perfectly. When its legendary coastline appears on the horizon, however, and we're standing with others to take in the spectacle, a single word captures what we collectively feel: Humbled.

Here at the 'Last Frontier,' wilderness knows no bounds and your sense of adventure runs free. From mid-May to mid-September 2024, sail aboard Seven Seas Explorer[®] to experience Alaska's green season, when temperatures turn mild, rivers fill with spawning salmon and wildlife are on the move. Take in the splendour of Seward's Resurrection Bay fjord, your eyes on the water for sea otters, orcas and whales and in the air for puffins, loons and eagles. Cruising peaceful Disenchantment Bay, prepare for the thrilling crack of Hubbard Glacier calving into a suddenly roiled sea. Discover why Sitka was known as the 'Paris of the Pacific' while a guide helps you scan the forest's edge for brown bears and black-tailed deer. After watching for humpback whales aboard a jet-powered catamaran in Juneau's Auke Bay, discuss the day's breathtaking sights over local craft brews and a classic Alaskan meal of salmon grilled over a fragrant fire.

Breathe in the air of pure wilderness from your private balcony aboard the most luxurious ship in Alaskan waters and know you're indelibly connected to this humbling corner of the world. And perhaps dream of your return.

SITKA, ALASKA

Snuggled between a mountain range known as the Three Sisters and Sitka Sound, this small town’s natural beauty is nothing short of epic. In the shadow of snow-capped Mount Edgecumbe, Sitka also boasts wonderfully preserved history and a thriving arts community. Founded by fur traders as New Archangel in 1799, Sitka was acquired by the United States of America as the Alaska territory in 1867. Explore the onion-shaped domes and gold-coloured crosses of St. Michael’s Cathedral, a picturesque remnant of Sitka’s heritage. After absorbing centuries of history at the Sitka History Museum, stroll among downtown’s numerous art galleries, shops and restaurants, perhaps stopping for a locally made craft beer. Beneath a canopy of towering hemlock, spruce and cedar trees, behold the 18 totems carved by Tlingit and Haida artists along the remarkable Totem Trail in Sitka National Historical Park.

INTRIGUING CITIES & ASTOUNDING CUISINE

As travellers, we are connected by a distinct outlook. One that declares the more intriguingly foreign a place, the more it demands exploring. Befuddling to some, but a precise explanation for some when it comes to their love of Asia. Where the joys of life are the same but celebrated so differently. Where the sizzle and steam of an exotic dish a millennium in the making may remind us of home. Where the iridescent reds, greens and yellows of fresh produce markets are followed by the night-time-neon fireworks of pulsing downtowns.

*Seven Seas Explorer raises the bar for Asian travel with a pair of Tokyo round trips in October 2024, which include overnights in Kobe and the enchantment of Kyoto, the former imperial capital of Japan. Cruises through south-east Asia offer overnights in cities with futuristic skylines and street-food havens. Discover the contrasting districts of Hong Kong, where herbal medicine shops compete with financial titans in tall buildings. Wander the fascinating mélange of incense-infused temples and colonial architecture in Ho Chi Minh City. After a picturesque drive into Bangkok's countryside, join locals in leaving an offering at a riverside Buddhist temple. In March and April 2025, see for yourself why Japan's cherry blossoms are an international phenomenon.

Celebrate the 2024-2025 holiday season in South Asian style aboard *Seven Seas Voyager as she departs the Arabian Sea for India, Sri Lanka, Myanmar and Malaysia. Satisfy your need to be intrigued on overnights in glamorous Mumbai, tropical Colombo and vibrant Yangon, along with visits to the colourful Indian cities of Mangalore, Kochi and Goa.

KYOTO, JAPAN

From the port city of Kobe, travel to Japan's imperial capital of Kyoto and its mesmerising array of grand temples, shrines, palaces and gardens. As the region is home to an astounding 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites, you'll quickly understand why Kyoto's historic districts have been at the centre of Japanese culture for over 1,000 years. Look out over the meticulously preserved old Kyoto Town from the famed wooden terrace of Kiyomizudera Temple in Higashiyama district before exploring the similarly celebrated Ginkakuji (Silver Pavilion), Yasaka Shrine and Maruyama Park. Walk atmospheric streets lined with 17th-century traditional restaurants and tea-houses in the Gion district, birthplace of Japan's geisha culture. Take in the sights, sounds and smells of Nishiki Market before enjoying a sumptuous kaiseki (multi-course) meal. In Kyoto's north, be sure to witness the upper two levels of revered Kinkakuji (Golden Pavilion) reflecting gold on a tranquil pond.

MILFORD SOUND,
NEW ZEALAND

SUBLIME COASTS & ANTIPODEAN DREAMS

When it comes to the much-celebrated marvels of Australia and New Zealand, there's always something new to discover – and relive. From breathtaking landscapes to stylish cities and enthralling wildlife, the appeal never fades. And let's not forget the magnificent South Pacific – an area of such mind-bending beauty it must be seen to be believed. Think jungle-covered peaks, horizons in shifting shades of blue... hibiscus and frangipani floating on sunset breezes.

Seven Seas Explorer[®] sets sail for Australia in December 2024 and skirts along Queensland's sublime coast – home of the Great Barrier Reef. Brisbane's South Bank offers spectacular skyline views and even an inner-city beach, while encounters with cherished Aussie fauna and exotic Komodo dragons, red pandas, Sumatran Tigers and more await at Australia Zoo. And, of course, an overnight stay in Sydney will always delight.

Explorer is joined by Seven Seas Voyager[®] in January 2025, crossing the Tasman Sea after a stop in Tassie to slowly cruise New Zealand's magnificent Dusky, Doubtful and Milford Sounds of Fjordland. There's little that can prepare the senses for this part of the world with its otherworldly fjords draped with graceful waterfalls. Explore South Island's cities with their wonderfully preserved Victorian architecture. Then why not sample the renowned wines and craft beers of the area?

Seven Seas Voyager[®] also departs from Auckland for the sun-speckled Vanuatu in 2025. Wander the colourful stalls and waterfront cafes of Vanuatu's capital city of Port Vila before heading on to Fiji where you can glide over famous soft coral and a galaxy of extravagant fish on a guided snorkelling tour. Marvel at the traditional villages in Samoa then kick back in Tahiti, French Polynesia's 'Queen of the Pacific'.

All voyages feature overnights in the extraordinary Bora Bora, with its hypnotic lagoon and islets.

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND

Like so many destinations in New Zealand, extraordinary natural beauty nearly overwhelms the human history of this North Island jewel. Named 'Bay of Islands' by Captain James Cook in 1769, its simple name subverts the diversity of its charms: a trove of secluded bays, pristine beaches and abundant marine life spread across 144 sparkling islands. Historically, the Māori knew it as Pēwhairangi and settled here as early as the 10th century. In the 19th century, Russell (then called Kororareka) became the first permanent European settlement and seaport. And it was here that the Treaty of Waitangi was drawn up and first signed in 1840. Your modern options are many: Paddle the tranquil waters of Waitangi Estuary on a scenic kayaking tour. See Motukokako Island and its dramatic Hole-in-the-Rock arch. Visit Omata, once an arrival point for European immigrants, now a successful wine-growing region. Walk among the mighty kauri trees of Puketi Forest, and so much more.

NOTRE-DAME BASILICA
MONTREAL, QUEBEC

COLOURFUL COASTS & OLD-WORLD CHARMS

Colours comprise an unwritten language defined by their reflection of the natural world and an inherent connection to our emotions. Every year in New England and Canada, nature unpacks its fireworks and dazzles us with a barrage of colours that speaks to the soul. Maybe it reminds us of walking home from school on a crisp autumn day, leaves crunching beneath our feet. Or maybe it's simply an annual thrill of anticipating beauty and rejoicing in its explosive arrival.

Hillsides awash in funhouse hues aren't the only appealing colours you'll encounter as you cruise North America's north-east in 2024. Our newest standard of luxury — the resplendent Seven Seas Grandeur™ — will envelop you in warm tones and smart palettes as you leave New York City for New England on the first of four Canada cruises, each of which overnights in Montréal. Explore Boston's historic neighbourhoods, taking in the autumn foliage of Boston Common and Public Gardens along the way. Get a glimpse of Canadian history on a tour of Halifax that includes World Heritage-listed Lunenburg, a picture-postcard fishing village. See Cape Breton Island's famously wild and rugged coast turned red, yellow and ochre as you cruise the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Canada offers more than grand wilderness, of course, which you'll immediately discover in the wonderfully Francophone cities of Québec City and Montréal. Enjoy the former's Québécois cuisine, European architecture and staggering Château Frontenac. The cobblestones of Rue St-Paul date back to the 17th century, but you'll be inspired by Montréal's cosmopolitan vibe.

ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL

FEATURED Port of Call

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA

Ever since the Naval Dockyard was established as Great Britain's most important Caribbean base in Antigua in 1784, its fringing coral reefs, crystal clear waters and hundreds of secluded beaches have made it a favourite West Indies destination. The 70-foot bell towers of the 19th-century St. John's Cathedral dominate the skyline of Antigua's capital city, a harbinger of the quaint colonial architecture found throughout. Check out exhibits on indigenous tribes, plantation life and the nation's passion for cricket at the Museum of Antigua & Barbuda before browsing the city's bustling jewellery and clothing boutiques. Revel in tropical vibes travelling across the island, passing candy-coloured villages on your way to Nelson's Dockyard National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site that's been in continuous operation since 1745. Enjoy sweeping vistas at Shirley Heights Lookout, Antigua's southernmost point, before sipping a signature Antiguan rum cocktail at one of English Harbour's historic inns.

SIMPLE PLEASURES & CULTURAL RICHES

A savouring of life's simple pleasures connects us to the Mediterranean. We break bread at Italian, Turkish, Greek and Spanish restaurants anticipating phenomenal food and wine, hearty laughter and genuine fellowship. We flock to see masterworks of art because we must witness true greatness in person. We reach out and touch the walls of ancient structures in tribute to those who created Western civilisation itself. And, of course, we take delight in the region's natural masterpieces, especially its beaches, coastlines and brilliant blue seas.

Highlight-filled itineraries beckon you to pursue your passion for all-things-Mediterranean in 2024-25. Luxury cruising's next standard of elegance, our magnificent Seven Seas Grandeur™, appropriately makes her debut out of Rome and overnights in Monte Carlo, Trieste and Istanbul. Before gracing glamorous ports like Saint-Tropez and Portofino, Seven Seas Splendor® begins her season by visiting Castellón, a new port in the Valencia region of eastern Spain.

A plethora of riches awaits aboard Seven Seas Voyager®. She makes multiple overnights in Istanbul, visits a new port in Italy's Porto Santo Stefano, calls upon Skiathos for the first time during a Greek Isles adventure, then makes two maiden calls in Turkey (Didim and Cesme). She sails to Israel, where multiple overnights invite deeper immersion into historic sites and cultures.

Swoon over the treasures of the Adriatic aboard Seven Seas Navigator® when she overnights in Dubrovnik, Croatia's walled city of terracotta roofs and massive forts. A flurry of new cities are called upon during a luxurious tour from Rome to Athens, including Italy's Ponza, Malta's Gozo and Greece's Limnos. As proof that Mediterranean wonders never cease, wander among a startling collection of modernist buildings in Melilla, a Spanish city on the North African coast and new port of call.

GOZO CATHEDRAL,

ANTIQUÉ TEMPLE OF APOLLO
DIDIM, TURKEY

NEW Ports of Call

CASTELLÓN, SPAIN

This capital city along the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast) offers hinterlands and verdant landscapes to complement its beaches. Look for Fadri Tower and the Gothic cathedral in its historic quarter and the medieval walled town of Peñíscola along the north coast.

MELILLA, SPAIN

One of two autonomous Spanish cities on the Moroccan coast (the other is Ceuta, near Gibraltar), Melilla features a monumental military fortress, a surprising collection of modernist buildings and a unique fusion of Mediterranean, European and African cuisine.

PORTO SANTO STEFANO, ITALY

Linked to the Tuscan mainland via three isthmuses, Porto Santo Stefano boasts a laid-back seafront that draws summer crowds, a 16th-century military fortress built by the Spanish and an 18th-century convent that offers views of the Tuscan archipelago.

PONZA, ITALY

Off the coast of Italy's Lazio region, stroll among the wild orchids of Ponza's Botanical Gardens, seek out the island's fascinating mix of Etruscan, Roman, Egyptian and Greek ruins, or simply bask in the wonderfully casual Mediterranean vibe.

GOZO, MALTA

Discover Gozo's mix of breathtaking natural features, historic fortifications and megalithic temples, from a natural limestone arch called Azure Window to the cathedral and museums of the Cittadella (Citadel). Later, sample a local drop at an acclaimed winery.

LIMNOS, GREECE

Experience Greece at its authentic best on this northern Aegean island of thriving fishing communities, intriguing ancient ruins, secluded stretches of sandy beaches, a medieval hilltop kastro (castle) and a wine-making culture mentioned in Homer's Iliad.

SKIATHOS, GREECE

Pine-forested mountains sloping to dazzling, white sand beaches await upon this most popular of the Sporades Islands. Explore Skiathos Town's whitewashed alleys, restaurants and quaint tavernas and the remains of the island's medieval capital of Kastro, abandoned since 1830.

CESME, TURKEY

Historical treasures abound in this popular Aegean resort town. Explore a 6th-century BCE temple dedicated to the goddess Aphrodite, the ancient ruins of 7th-century BCE Erythrai and magnificent Cesme Castle before people-watching over a Turkish coffee in nearby Alacati.

DIDIM, TURKEY

Districts named Altınkum (Golden Sand), Gümüşkum (Silver Sand) and Sarıkum (Yellow Sand) reveal Didim's modern appeal, but its most famous ancient monument — the Temple of Apollo in the village of Didyma — was once home to the second most influential oracle after Delphi.

LORE-FILLED FJORDS & URBAN GEMS

The wind is calm. The sea is flat. You sail into a fjord along Norway's storied western coast, giant fingers of ancient earth stretching to either shoreline. Your awe of this untamed place turns to appreciation for those who've called this landscape home for millennia. You understand the inspiration for age-old tales of monsters and trolls — the glorious, unforgiving landscape itself — and the Nordic legends created to stand victorious over them.

Such connections to nature's heroic splendour are common throughout Northern Europe, where coastlines are jagged, castles are medieval and glaciers are grand. Hemmed in on all sides by towering mountains, Isafjordur in Iceland's Westfjords is where Seven Seas Mariner[®] begins a spectacular journey in this geothermal wonderland that includes an overnight in Reykjavik and encounters with the vast puffin colony of the new port of Heimaey. She'll also call on Aarhus, Denmark for the first time and offer more than half-a-dozen overnights across multiple countries from the Faroe Islands to France. Similarly, Seven Seas Voyager[®] offer a bevy of overnights in Europe, including Belgium, the Netherlands, France and Spain.

Seven Seas Splendor[®] tours the Iberian Peninsula before making maiden calls on Santander, Spain and Måløy, Norway. After exploring the British Isles, she makes a remarkable pair of circumnavigations of Iceland calling upon the new Icelandic ports of Djupivogur and Heimaey. She'll overnight in magical locales across the Faroe Islands, Norway, Belgium and France. Seven Seas Navigator[®] serves up Scandinavian and Baltic gems with sailings that include maiden calls on Estonia's Saaremaa, Denmark's Esbjerg and the Netherlands' Vlissingen with overnights in Iceland. Join her to explore the gamut of French culture with overnights in Cherbourg and Bordeaux and with back-to-back nights in Honfleur, offering you plus d'opportunités to fall in love with Paris, as well as calling on Calais for the first time.

DJUPIVOGUR, ICELAND

Nestled by the picturesque fjord of Hamarsfjorour, this small coastal village that dates back to 1589 offers something magical: Mt. Bulandstindur, a pyramid-shaped basalt mountain peaking at 3,507 feet, which is widely believed to be a focus of mystical forces.

HEIMAEY, ICELAND

This small, vibrant island underwent cataclysmic change in January, 1973, when a vast fissure burst open, burying 400 buildings and creating a new volcano. Learn fascinating details at the Eldheimar Museum before setting out to see a vast colony of Atlantic puffins.

VLISSINGEN, NETHERLANDS

An important port city for centuries due to its strategic location on the Westerschelde, Vlissingen is now the Zeeland region's most favoured seaside resort. Trace that eventful history at the Zeeland Maritime MuZEEum before strolling its charming, café-laden boulevard.

SAAREMAA, ESTONIA

Part of an archipelago so diverse and robust it's recognised by UNESCO as a biosphere reserve. The Estonian island of Saaremaa boasts a medieval fortress, traditional villages, elaborate spas — even a meteorite crater field once considered sacred.

ESBJERG, DENMARK

A Danish version of Easter Island's monoliths — the monumental Man Meets the Sea — is a spectacular introduction to this North Sea harbour city. Dive into local history and art at Esbjerg's museums and discover the offshore gem of Fanø.

CALAIS, FRANCE

A World Heritage-listed city hall fronted by one of Rodin's most famous public monuments, museums dedicated to the city's role in World War II and a medieval watchtower and cathedral make Calais much more than a transportation hub to England.

MÅLØY, NORWAY

Explore the sights of this charming coastal village that's one of Norway's most important fishing ports. Learn the area's WWII history at the Måløy Raid Centre, snap a photo of the must-see Kannesteinen Rock and walk Refviksanden's white sands.

AARHUS, DENMARK

Brimming with stunning architecture both old and modern, a vibrant cultural scene and lively boutiques and bars, Denmark's second-largest city is fast becoming a must-see Scandinavian stop. Foodies dive into dishes ranging from New Nordic to traditional Danish.

SANTANDER, SPAIN

From Magdalena Palace — an early 20th-century gift from Santander to Spain's royal family — to the ultra modern Centro Botín museum, this picturesque port city nicknamed 'bride of the sea' echoes its seafaring past and heralds its future.

OLDEN, NORWAY

HUAREN VIEWPOINT HIKE

Embrace Norway's adventurous spirit and serene beauty with a hike to the top of Mount Huaren. The ascent will present glorious views of the natural wonders that surround Olden, which nestles along the mouth of the Oldeelva River. The higher you ascend, the more stunning the scenery and the more invigorating the mountain air. Triumphant, you will reach the summit 1,246-feet above sea level for panoramic views. Sparkling Nordfjord stretches out before you, merging with sights of snow-capped peaks and pristine forests. From this lofty vantage point, you will also see the village of Loen and some of Norway's oldest farms - which thrive on the glacially formed moraine soil.

SOUTH AMERICA

NOVEMBER 2024
TO
MARCH 2025

PARK ENRIQUE LAGE
RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

AMAZONIAN ADVENTURE, PATAGONIAN ICE

South America is a land of colourful extremes. The Amazon Basin features the world's largest tropical rainforest; the UNESCO-listed Laguna San Rafael is home to a shockingly blue glacier. The sparkling beaches, verdant parks and anything-goes spirit of carnival makes Rio de Janeiro a 'must-visit' for travellers the world over; Tierra del Fuego's quirky, windswept capital of Ushuaia is nicknamed 'The End of the World' and is only accessible by air or water.

Connecting such disparate qualities is an essential element of understanding a place, of course, and you have intriguing options for grasping South America properly in 2024 and 2025. After pausing for beach time in the eastern Caribbean, Seven Seas Mariner[®] cruises the Atlantic in November 2024 for a thrilling journey up the Amazon River, long a fixture of literature and film — with subsequent legends. You'll gain precious insight into the river and its people, including the Amazonian city once known as the 'Paris of the Tropics,' the white sand beaches of Alter do Chão and the fascinating 'Wedding of the Waters' (where the Tapajós and Amazon rivers meet). Seven Seas Navigator[®] embarks on a similar adventure in February 2025.

Enjoy overnights in extraordinary cities, a brush with Antarctica and the majestic Chilean Fjords aboard Seven Seas Splendor[®] in 2025. Learn how Buenos Aires is more than Argentina's capital: it's an architectural marvel, foodie's dream and tango-lover's mecca. Cruise the fabled Drake Passage between Chile's southernmost tip and Antarctica's South Shetland Islands, an unforgettable seafaring feat, and stare slack-jawed at Patagonia's giant glaciers and mountains.

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Argentina's beloved capital is tucked away in a far corner of South America, but it's as switched-on as any city, anywhere. Spanish traders created the wealth and European immigrants shaped the architecture that gives Buenos Aires its old-world ambience, but it's the Latin passion for fútbol (football), parrillas (steakhouses) and, of course, tango that electrifies the culture. After walking the living, dancing street museum that is El Caminito, enjoy an alfresco lunch amid the technicolour houses of La Boca barrio, where a myriad of forces gave rise to the tango in the 19th century. Score antiques and collectibles in historic San Telmo, stand beneath the Casa Rosada balcony where Eva Perón — known to many as Evita — addressed throngs in Plaza de Mayo, make a pilgrimage to the grand mausoleums of Recoleta Cemetery, explore the redeveloped Puerto Madero and test the acoustics of Teatro Colón. A heady itinerary, but Buenos Aires will inspire you to do it all... and tango, too.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®] includes economy* flights for all cruises. Flights are subject to availability and supplements may apply. Please refer to the details below for more information about our air programme – further information can be found on RSSC.com.

CAN I UPGRADE MY FLIGHT?

Yes, please contact our reservations department who will be happy to quote for special upgrade prices to premium economy, business class and first class. Upgrades are subject to availability, routing and aircraft type. Air upgrades apply to international sectors only. Domestic (UK) and internal flights within other countries will be in economy class (unless stated otherwise).

CAN I PRE-BOOK MY AIRLINE SEAT?

Most airlines do make a charge for allocating seat numbers prior to check-in. Where this is the case, airline tickets must be issued for the airline to pre-book your seats. Air tickets are issued approximately 70 days prior to departure providing full payment and all guest information has been received. Guests must contact the airline directly to pre-allocate their seats and pay any relevant fees. In all instances airline seat numbers are never guaranteed and can be changed by the airline due to operational reasons. Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®] will not be liable for any reimbursement or losses.

CAN I ORDER SPECIAL/MEDICAL MEALS FOR MY FLIGHT?

Special meal requests are the sole responsibility of the guest and must be made directly with the airline via their website or by calling them directly. Alternatively, we can also make this request on your behalf if advised. Special meals must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the flight.

CAN I CLAIM FREQUENT FLYER MILES/POINTS?

If you are a member of an airline frequent flyer programme and wish to have your details recorded in your booking please advise our reservations department who can advise the airline, alternatively you may enter them yourselves directly via the airline's website. Some airlines restrict the ability to accrue miles in conjunction with fares used by Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®].

CAN I USE MY FREQUENT FLYER MILES/POINTS TO UPGRADE MY AIRLINE TICKET?

In most cases it is not possible to upgrade your ticket with your airline frequent flyer points. Due to the specially negotiated fares which exist between Regent Seven Seas Cruises[®] and the airlines, the airlines do not allow this method of payment for upgrades.

WHAT IF I HAVE SPECIAL MEDICAL REQUESTS OR NEED WHEELCHAIR ASSISTANCE?

If you have any special medical requests or require wheelchair or mobility assistance, please contact us to discuss your requirements. Airlines have different restrictions, and we can advise on any special information they require. For up-to-date information please always refer to the airline's website.

WHAT IS MY LUGGAGE ALLOWANCE FOR MY FLIGHTS?

Included luggage allowances vary by airline, route and class of travel. Please check with your airline on your itinerary for the exact allowance and for any applicable excess baggage charges. We will not be liable for any excess charges.

WHY DOES THE AIRLINE NEED MY EMAIL ADDRESS OR MOBILE PHONE NUMBER?

Airlines now require your contact details by way of email address and/or mobile phone number so that they can contact you quickly in an emergency. It is important that these details are added to your airline booking as should an emergency occur, especially outside our office hours, you would be notified immediately of any operational issue such as a flight cancellation or delay.

WHAT DO I DO IF I'M AT THE AIRPORT AND MY FLIGHT IS DELAYED OR CANCELLED?

Occasionally situations occur where your flight may be delayed or even cancelled. If you have already checked-in for your flight you must also speak with the airline staff at the airport to ensure suitable alternative flights are booked by the airline. If the airline is unable to assist, or you have not checked in, please contact us immediately using the telephone number supplied in your cruise documentation.

*Business class flights are included for guests booked in Penthouse Suites and higher on voyages to/from Europe.
