ANCIENT LANDS & NEON LIGHTS

Step into a world of contrasts where mysticism and modernity exist hand in hand. In Japan, traditional teahouses, castles and onsens, immaculately manicured gardens and temples vie for attention along with neon-lit skyscrapers, robot service staff and the famous Shinkansen (bullet train). Gloriously 'other', it is a country that surprises, awes and occasionally baffles, and that's all part of its appeal.

Across the South China Sea, Shanghai's unique blend of towering skyscrapers, UNESCO sites, intriguing museums and bazaars projects an image that flexes fluidly between the ancient, glamorous and spiritual. This sense of juxtaposition is a common theme in your journey, adding a deep sense of drama as each country's landscapes, customs and history are brought vividly to life. Depending on which voyage you choose, you might watch as Hong Kong's skyscrapers blaze their 'Symphony of Lights' over traditional Chinese junks bobbing in the harbour or savour the flavours of traditional South Korean street food in the shadow of Seoul's futuristic Design Plaza.

CAPTIVATING KYOTO — JAPAN'S CULTURAL HEART

Japan's capital for over 1,000 years, Kyoto retains a rich sense of prestige and history. Widely regarded as Japan's cultural capital, it presents a beguiling taste of old Japan through its traditional wooden teahouses, cultural festivals, incredible palaces, shrines and gardens. In Kyoto's Gion district, traditional geisha ('geiko' in Kyoto dialect) culture is still preserved, so don't be surprised if you see Maiko (geiko in training) strolling the streets with their elaborate hairstyles, beautiful kimonos and traditional white make-up.

discover castles & clans

With an overnight in Kyoto (from Kobe) on two of the featured sailings, and Kyoto excursions also available from Osaka, it is a destination that is sure to be a highlight on your journey. An enticing collection of Included & Unlimited Shore Excursions invites you to explore the city's Imperial past. The gracious spirit of Old Japan can be found in Kyoto's ancient temples and castle. Opt for the Highlights of Kyoto shore excursion to gaze up at the 14th-century Golden Pavilion, a Zen temple gilded in gold leaf, and explore the formidable Nijo Castle. Offering a valuable insight into the country's feudal past and the power of the Tokugawa shoguns, for whom it was built, the castle features numerous gates, thick stone walls, moats and some ingenious defence mechanisms.

HIMEJI CASTLE

reflective moments

With two days to soak up the sights, you can also choose the Nara & Osaka Discovery excursion. Considered the cradle of Japanese arts, literature and crafts, the city of Nara is also where the spectacle of one of Japan's largest bronze Buddha statues awaits you at Todai-ji Temple, its open palm as tall as a human. Alternatively, a cable car up Mount Rokko reveals a magnificent panoramic view of Kobe and Osaka on the Glorious Mount Rokko excursion, while back at ground level, the Sorakuen Gardens and Views excursion reflect the tranquillity and sense of purpose that is often found in Japanese gardens, with every object and structure in perfect harmony with its surroundings.

Such attention to detail is a thread that will likely run through your experiences in Japan, from the regard for manners and etiquette to the care and artistry lavished on the cuisine and crafts you encounter. Shop for exotic mementoes to take home, including silks, ceramics and paper parasols. When dining, don't miss your opportunity to try Kobe beef. A type of wagyu that comes from a specific type of Japanese Black cattle bred and raised to strict criteria, it is esteemed for its exceptional flavour, tenderness and marbling. ■

This blend of faiths and ethnicities makes it fascinating and enlightening to explore and there is so much to experience, from sampling spicy, aromatic cuisines and visiting ancient temples to exploring mesmerising landscapes that span rice terraces, mountains, caves, tropical rainforests and corals.

Immersing yourself in the local ways is easy with Regent. Each day heralds new learnings, experiences and sights with your choice of a range of Included & Unlimited Shore Excursions. From strolling UNESCO World Heritage sites and gardens to gazing up at ornate wood carvings and towering statues or relaxing on golden sands, this is a journey that offers a kaleidoscope of memorable moments and backdrops.

See the enduring ways of Bangkok's river life in action at its thriving floating Pattaya market. Climb to an ancient Hindu hilltop temple on horseback in Semarang, Indonesia. And explore the urban oasis of Singapore's Gardens by the Bay, where lofty solar-powered 'Super Trees' cast your eyes to the sky.

VIETNAM'S SPELLBINDING CAPITAL

Formerly Saigon, Ho Chi Minh City pulsates with a unique energy. With an overnight call here on all three featured Southeast Asian cruises, you can explore its many facets through your choice of Included & Unlimited Shore Excursions.

French colonialism & folklore

Lying on a snaking bend in the Sài Gòn River, this quintessentially cosmopolitan city boasts glistening skyscrapers, bustling food markets and magnificent French-colonial buildings. Orientate yourself with the Included Panoramic Saigon shore excursion to enjoy a leisurely drive through Ho Chi Minh City's streets, pausing at highlights including the iconic Notre-Dame Cathedral, the city's most enduring symbol of its French colonial past. If you are in a more whimsical frame of mind, a Folkloric Show excursion is a great way to see the cultural diversity of Vietnam brought to life through dance and music. Reflecting regional legends and history or simply showcasing the dancers' talents, each piece tells its own story.

sky bars & night markets

As the light fades, Ho Chi Minh City comes alive with a vibrant nightlife scene that rivals any in Southeast Asia. From rooftop bars offering panoramic views of the city skyline to Ben Thanh Night Market and night-time river cruises, there's something for every nocturnal explorer to enjoy.

local insights

A second day in this dynamic city allows you to delve a little deeper. The Regent Choice Saigon Alleys Through the Eyes of a Local excursion* brings the chance to venture into the labyrinthine alleys of Ho Chi Minh City on the back of a vintage scooter. Visit a century-old apartment and chat to locals over a Vietnamese coffee at a small family-run shop. (*Additional charges apply)

For an Included & Unlimited taste of local life, the Mekong River Delta shore excursion is a great choice, taking you beyond the city boundaries and into the fertile Mekong Delta to see areas only accessible by boat. The experience begins with a trip to Vinh Trang, a Buddhist temple surrounded by immaculate gardens and meticulously tended bonsai trees. Continuing your adventure, you will journey by boat, passing terraced rice paddies, fields and fruit orchards before arriving in the village of Thoi Son Island. A folkloric music performance, refreshments and a traditional Vietnamese lunch follow, giving you plenty of time to interact with the villagers before your return journey via a wooden sampan. ■
